

Coles ties Little for lead in LPGA tourney

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y. (AP) — Janet Coles, who has captured only one title in four seasons on the Ladies Professional Golf Association tour, shot a 69 Saturday and tied veteran Sally Little at 214 for the lead after three rounds of the $125,000 tournament at the Wykagyl Country Club.

Little bogeyed the par-5 18th hole, and finished the round with a one-under 71.

Jo Anne Washam, who was involved in a three-way tie for second place before the start of play, had a par 72 on the 6,410-yard layout and was one stroke off the pace at 215.

THE LEADERS

Janet Coles	75-70-69—214
Sally Little	72-71-71—214
Jo Ann Washam	72-71-72—215
Nancy Lopez-Melton	75-75-66—216
Beth Daniel	72-74-70—216
Debbie Austin	72-72-72—216
Kathy Martin	74-73-70—217
Sandra Post	72-72-73—217
Amy Alcott	72-73-72—217
JoAnne Carner	73-69-76—218
Pat Bradley	74-75-70—219
Alice Miller	71-73-75—219
Vicki Fergon	73-72-74—219
Patty Snyder	74-69-77—220
Carolyn Hill	78-74-69—221
Marxa Stubblefield	75-75-71—221
Louise Bruce	77-73-71—221
Vivian Brownlee	73-76-72—221
Lori Garbacz	72-75-74—221
Donna C. Young	77-72-73—222
Myra Van Hoose	74-75-73—222
Barbara Mizrahe	75-73-74—222
Judy Rankin	76-72-74—222
Amelia Rorer	71-76-74—222